REV. W. R. WALKER DEAD.

The Venerable Divine Passed Away Monday Night.

Rev. W. R. Walker died at 12 o'clock Monday night, Feb. 22, at his home a few miles west of the city. He had been in a precarious condition for several days, but was better on Saturday and his friends hoped he would rally, but he suffered a relapse which his feeble state of health could not stand and he peacefully passed away.

Mr. Walker was a Baptist minister and the greater part of his long life was devoted to the work of preaching the gospel. Of late years he had been quietly spending the evening of his life on his farm near the city, holding his membership with the Baptist church in this city. In his death, he passed from the presence of earthly life a man who exemplified in a marked degree the beauty of the Christian religion. As a preacher, as a neighbor and friend, as a man and as a citizen he lived up to the golden rule and in all things did what was right and left behind him an example worthy of emulation by all who desire to live good and upright lives.

We have not at hand the data for writing a formal obituary. Mr. Walker had lived out the allotted three score years and ten. He leaves several daughters and one son, Mr. J. B. Walker.

The funeral services were held at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Baptist church in this city. Rev. C. H. Nash presiding, a brief funeral discourse, after which the interment took place in the city cemetery.

CITY COURT NEWS.

Matrimonial.

Miss Mary Fuller, daughter of Chief Justice Fuller, was married Jan. 7, in Germany, to C. C. Manning. She had gone abroad for her health and was taken worse. Her lover together with her mother visited her in Germany and while the bride was believed to be on her death-bed the couple were married. The husband then set about nursing the invalid back to life and succeeded. The marriage has just been made public.

Room-Woman.—Mr. William H. Robb, of Genoa, and Miss Mary J. Wood, of Louisville, were married at the residence of the bride's mother, near the latter place, at 8 o'clock p. m., Friday. The couple passed through the city yesterday morning enroute to their South Carolina home. The bride is a sister of Mr. Wallace Wood, of the firm of Lovell & Wood, of this city.

DOWRY.—Mrs. J. C. Downey, of Nashville, and Miss Sallie M. Redwood, of Louisville, were united in marriage at the home of the bride at 8 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, Rev. J. M. Gill, of Elkins, performing the ceremony in his usual happy style. Only a few of the most intimate friends of the contracting parties were present to witness the affair. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom were driven to the depot where they took the 5:25 train for Nashville, their future home.

Mr. Downey had been engaged in the mercantile business in Paducah until recently, when he sold out his interest in the business of Downey & Jennings to Walter Radford. He then went to Nashville and is now engaged in the real estate business. He is an excellent business man and made a host of friends during his stay in Paducah. His bride is a young lady of much beauty and intelligence and has been quite a favorite in social circles among her home. The two were the recipients of numerous congratulations before their departure.

Deaths.

Forbes.—Mrs. Naomi Fortson, died at her home, Pombene Sunday last, aged 78 years. Mrs. Fortson had been a member of the Christian Church for many years. Her funeral was held Monday afternoon by Rev. J. M. Phillips, after which the interment took place at the family burying ground.

Well.—Mrs. W. A. Wells died at her home in W. A. D., the city at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning, aged 83 years. Mrs. Wells had been in feeble health for a long time and her death was not unexpected. She was a devoted member of the Christian church for a number of years. The interment took place at the city cemetery at 11 o'clock yesterday.

Stark.—Frank P. Stark, formerly of this county, died in Tennessee last week, where he had been living for some time.

Washington.—Hattie Washington died in the city of consumption Tuesday, aged 18 years.

Trenton.—Mr. W. B. Trenton, 24, 1892.—Mr. W. A. Dickman, of this place, sold yesterday to a syndicate of "No. Nine" his four-year old stallion "No. Nine" for the sum of $800. The name of the horse is W. A. D., he is one of the best sons of Lynn Boyd, who is also owned by Messrs. Archie and Andy Dickman. Mr. Dickman also sold to J. H. Mallory a 3-year-old filly for $225.00 and a 4-year-old combined gelding to H. Pearce for $200. All the stock was of Mr. Dickman's own raising. This goes to show how profitable horse raising can be made in Southern Kentucky. Here are four sold at an aggregate price of $1,225.

The Rev. Mr. McChesney of this place is quite low, a general breaking down the cause.

We very much regret to learn of the death of our friend and legal adviser Mr. H. J. Stiles. May his soul rest in peace, as severely as the confidence of all who knew him rested in his hands.

The writer will be in your town tomorrow and will be usual confine him to the Rock Spring for drink and to the staff of the KENTUCKIAN for education.

John Lipscomb has returned from the Eastern markets where he spent two weeks selecting and purchasing dry goods, notions, etc. for his dry goods store. Mr. Lipscomb is the first class dry goods man and his selection of goods is always fully up to date. He is a valuable assistant to Mr. Moten and the friends of his labors to please the public will be shown when the Spring stock arrives and he is in the place.
